

Anthropology

Where can you go with an Anthropology Degree?

A degree in Anthropology can take your career in many directions. Most students choose to enter the workforce right after graduation, and many continue their education after a few years in the workforce. Our students are equipped with a strong foundation for a career as a(n): Anthropologist, Archaeologist, Archivist, Conservator, Curator, Ethnologist, Social Science Analyst

First Year

Academics

- Start taking LASC courses as well as foundational and core anthropology courses.
- Need a little help in your classes? Look into tutoring with the Academic Success Center.
- Look into the many experiential learning opportunities offered to build a well-rounded college experience.

On-Campus Experience

- Join a major-specific student organization such as the Dragon Anthropological Association. Check out all your student organization options by visiting DragonCentral.

Connect to the Community

- Volunteer on or off-campus with different community organizations such as the Prairie Nations Research Group or the Regional Science Center.

Understand Your Career

- Start researching potential career paths on O*Net. Here, you can find valuable information, including typical tasks associated with the profession, the skills and knowledge required, the necessary education and licensures, wages and employment trends, professional organizations, and related occupations. Search for careers such as an Anthropologist.

Second Year

Academics

- Take a deeper dive into the discipline of anthropology and begin considering a minor and/or certificate such as Geographic Information Science.

On-Campus Experience

- Find an on-campus job or begin your leadership journey by applying for a student leadership position. Visit Handshake to see open positions.
- Find time to participate in events and activities. See a list of upcoming opportunities in DragonCentral.

Connect to the Community

- Join LinkedIn to begin building your professional network and online presence. Think of your profile as a virtual resume and make sure to update it regularly to reflect jobs, coursework, volunteering, involvement, and skills.
- Attend the on-campus Employer Visits as often as possible. Make sure to engage with the representatives and collect contact information to follow up.

Understand Your Career

- Schedule an appointment with the Career Development Center for career planning to learn how to make the most of your time here at MSUM.

Third Year

Academics

- In addition to getting your access code, schedule an appointment with your Academic Advisor to ensure you're on track for graduation.
- Take inventory of your professional goals and decide if your future will need to include graduate school. Take the necessary exams and keep track of application timelines.

On-Campus Experience

- Continue developing leadership skills by exploring leadership positions in the Dragon Anthropological Association, other student organizations, or student senate.
- Explore out-of-class learning opportunities like site tours, field school, and research.

Connect to the Community

- Attend or present at various conferences at the local, regional, and/or national levels. Some conferences include the Plains Anthropological Society and the Council for Minnesota Archaeology.

Understand Your Career

- Attend professional development-related events on campus, and connect with faculty to learn more about the field and gain insights on how to be successful in your job search.
- Find an internship or part-time job with a local or regional business to learn the ins and outs of your chosen career.

Fourth Year

Academics

- Participate in the Student Academic Conference to showcase research, connect with employers, and to boost your resume.
- Ensure you submit your application for graduation on time and complete the graduate follow-up survey, letting us know your career or continuing education plans.

On-Campus Experience

- Assess what experiences or skills are areas of growth for you and fill in gaps with volunteering, organizations, or part-time employment.

Connect to the Community

- Join professional organizations such as Society for American Archaeology to gain access to research, continuing education opportunities, job boards, and message boards. Make sure to join prior to graduation to receive the discounted student rate (when applicable). Get involved in a community organization such as the Young Professionals Network to continue building your professional network.

Understand Your Career

- Network relentlessly! Attend networking events to get connected to employers looking to hire soon-to-be grads. Check DragonCentral for more information.
- Schedule appointments with a Career Coach to go over your professional documents and to prepare for upcoming interviews. And remember, once a dragon, always a dragon. You have access to these services for life.

What skills will you need?

To be successful in the world of Anthropology, you will need the following skills: Analytical thinking, critical thinking, communication, and physical stamina.

Thankfully, through coursework, on-campus involvement, part-time employment, and internships, you will be well-prepared for life after graduation.